Fall 2022 Semester

Guide for Taking the Online English Proficiency Test for freshmen

IFLS Foreign Language Center

August 1, 2022

The Korea University IFLS Foreign Language Center will conduct an online English proficiency test to determine the appropriate Academic English level for the fall 2022 semester. This test follows the TOEIC format. The English proficiency test is a mandatory requirement for freshmen at Korea University registering for Academic English, and must be taken prior to Academic English course registration. *Please note that you cannot register for any Academic English course unless you first take the English level test.

1. Students required to take the English level test:
   - All students (including international freshmen and international transfer students) entering Korea University in 2022
   - All Korean nationals residing abroad (재외국민) and entering Korea University in 2022
   - Any student who entered Korea University from 2012 to 2022 and has not yet taken the English level test.

2. Format:
   a. primary level assessment: online English proficiency test following the TOEIC format
      - Total 200 questions (Listening 100, Reading 100), to be taken in 2 hours (120 minutes)
      - The test is available 1 time only
   b. secondary level assessment will be conducted in class by native English speaking faculty (during the 1st week of the fall semester)
      -Students scoring at the advanced level will be evaluated on their English level by a 1:1 Zoom session with native English speaking IFLS professors.

3. Fee: free
